

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

TELLS RHEUMATISM SUFFERERS TO EAT LESS MEAT AND TAKE SALTS.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

OTHER NEUTRALS GET COPY OF U. S. NOTE

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Pressure from other neutrals is the trump card the United States has played in the attempt to force Germany to accept the position of the United States regarding submarine attacks on neutral ships and passenger carrying vessels of belligerent nations. It was learned that copies of Wilson's note have been placed at the disposal of neutral countries whose citizens were lost on the Lusitania. It is reported these nations have endorsed the issues as outlined by the president. It is presumed this is what the president had in mind when in his New York speech he said: "We ask only what we have a right to ask for all humanity."

10 Days Net $20,000 Gold.
BAKER, Ore., May 22.—Fourteen bars of gold bullion, valued at $20,000, representing a day's run at the Last Chance mine, in the Cornucopia group, were brought into Baker by Hance Ladd, manager of the mine. Although the run is considered exceptional, the two chief mines of the district, the Last Chance and the Union Company, are making large outputs, running close to $100,000 monthly.

France to Import Meat.
PARIS, May 22.—A bill authorizing the purchase of imported refrigerator beef for the army was passed by the chamber of deputies. Jacques Louis Dumesnil, chairman of the appropriation committee, said the supply of domestic livestock was insufficient to furnish the pound of meat daily which was necessary for each soldier. He expressed the opinion that refrigerator beef was as nourishing as fresh domestic meat, and said purchases of this beef by the government would prevent speculation and excessive retail prices.

NOT AN ISOLATED CASE.
Many Similar Cases in Pendleton and Vicinity.

This Pendleton man's story given here is not an isolated case by any means; week after week, year after year our neighbors are telling similar good news.

William McGregor, prop. horse shoeing shop, W. Alta & Ann streets, Pendleton, says: "Kidney complaint came on me suddenly and I got so bad that I couldn't bend my back to shoe a horse. The kidney secretions were filled with sediment and painful in passage. I had no strength at all and my back was lame and sore. After I had used Doan's Kidney Pills a short time, all these troubles left me and I was able to work all day with ease. My health is fine now and my back is strong."

The picture is said to be one of the best ever secured of a ferocious wild animal. WHEAT ADVANCE LATER IS LOST 1ST GAINS LOST IN HOG MARKET

(Saturday's Market.)
CHICAGO.—July wheat sold at $1.20 1-2 the first hour today and $1.27 1-8 at the close. There was no end of crop damage reports for the trade at the outset and back of the complaints coming from Illinois and Missouri counties there was the Kansas state report given out late yesterday indicating a harvest of 136,000,000 bushels. The trade regarded this as bullish and bought wheat on the early advance.

Wire houses and the entire local trade seemed to rush into the market on the buying side and there was additional covering of short lines as the top price was reached. The marking up of the May price to $1.57 helped make the trade nervous. The advance in the September price was to $1.23 5-8. Late in the session it was evident that most of the supporters of the market from $1.25 and under for July about the middle of the week to top figures today changed front and put their holdings into the pit in large quantities.

It was a decided bearish turn the last hour, when the July went to the low figure named and September off to $1.21 1-4. In the meantime the May price dropped back several cents under a few light offers.

A Chicago member who has been over the far southwest all week returned today and said he could see none of the extreme crop damage mentioned in the reports, but did see farmers over the entire southwest selling their old wheat reserve freely. Late messages from Kansas City claim that country elevators, mills and farmers are all selling their wheat stocks. Bear leaders helped press the market on the late decline.

It has been the comment for days in the corn trade that whatever snap there was on the buying side of the market was largely due to the influence of unusual bull action in wheat. There was another bulge in corn this morning. It amounted to only 1-4c for the late months and when wheat began to break corn lost ground quickly and near the close prices slipped back about 1c under the top for the morning to 75 3-8 for July and 76 3-8 for September. A leading house sold May and bought July at one time, widening the spread for a time. Local receipts were 64 cars. Sample market ruled about steady. Except that the local trade took the selling side because of the break in wheat, there was no special feature to the market.

May oats tumbled 2 3-4c and dropped back to 52 1-4c late in the session. July sold to 51 1-8c and back to 50 3-8c. September 46c and back to 45 1-8c. Local receipts were 67 cars. The trade acted with corn.

Products failed to hold up in the face of weakness in grains. Ribs were 5c lower for July and September at the close; lard 7 1-2c lower than Friday; pork closed $18.02 1-2 for July and $18.52 1-2 for September; 12 1-2c lower for the day.

ERRATIC PRICES IN WHEAT MART

(Saturday's Market.)
PORTLAND, Ore.—Wheat prices were erratic here during the week, in fact, all domestic markets showed mixed character. Late in the week the local market practically recovered the early loss.

There is only one real factor in the wheat at this time; in fact, this factor permeates the entire cereal trade. The lack of sufficient tonnage is the factor that is keeping prices here from corresponding to the huge values abroad. With charter rates for ships fully 30c a bushel higher than at the opening of the season, and most impossible to secure vessels at that, it is small wonder that American cereal prices have lost rapidly during recent months while the price abroad remains intact at the extreme marks.

This shortage of ships is not only having its effect upon 1914-15 holdings of wheat but is sure to cause trouble during the coming 1915-16 season. Charter rates have recently advanced as high as 75 shillings for European account while the normal is very close to 39 shillings.

There is still a very good demand for cereals in Europe and Australia is an active bidder for supplies, but the ship shortage is demoralizing the entire trade.

Because of the extraordinary dullness in the oriental situation and the more limited demand for flour at home, only a handful of mills are at present operating in the Pacific northwest. June 1 will probably witness the closing of the remainder for the season. This has created an extreme scarcity of stuffs and higher prices are generally ruling. Were it not for the comparative cheapness of oats and barley, stuffs would undoubtedly have moved still higher.

Patent flour made a further decline of 20c per barrel at all Pacific northwest points during the week but little new business resulted.
